President Thwing,

Western Reserve University,

Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear President Thwing:

Many thanks for your telegram and your letter as well as for the circular with regard to Sir Harry Johnston's lectures. We hope that he may come to us for the last week of October, after your course is completed. I hope also that you will have a very successful course.

Many thanks for your reference to the present awful crisis. I am glad that you agree with us that Britain and her allies are fighting for democracy. One hopes that there can be only one issue to such a struggle. With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
